SUB: Devaluation of Pound Sterling—Consequential reduction in the rupee value of import licence.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Calcutta-1, the 11th December 1967

No. 44/IP(PN)/67.—As a result of devaluation of pound sterling with effect from 19th November, 1967, it has been decided to reduce the rupee value of import licences issued against U. K. Credit or Kipping Loan, which was unutilised on 19th November, 1967. The procedure to be followed in this regard is indicated in the succeeding paragraph.

2. In the case of import licences issued against U.K. Credit or Kipping Loan, the c.i.f. rupee value shown in the licences will stand automatically reduced for the purpose of clearance and remittance to the extent of 14.2/7 per cent (or one seventh) of that portion of the value of the licence which has not been utilised before 19th November, 1967. The unutilised value for the purpose of clearance will be judged from the Customs copy of the licence; and the unutilised value for the purpose of remittance will be judged from the Exchange Control copy of the licence.

3. The reduction in value in the Customs copy of the licence will be recorded by the Customs Authorities when the licensee produces to them his licence at the time of clearance of the next consignment. Similarly, reduction in value in the Exchange Control Copy of the licence will be recorded by an authorised dealer in foreign exchange at the time of the next remittance.

Bombay was granted an import licence No. P/RM/8531841/C/UR/21-22/S/D/22/35/343, dated 25-1-1966, under Rupee Ceiling for the period April-March 1966. They have applied for the issue of duplicate C.C.P. copy on ground that the above said C.C.P. copy has been lost. It further stated that the above import licence has not been utilised at by them and it has not been registered with any Customs authority. In support of this contention the applicant has filed an affidavit in the stamped paper in the prescribed manner.

I am satisfied that the original C.C.P. copy of licence has been lost or misplaced and direct that a duplicate C.C.P. copy of the import licence should be issued to the applicant. The original C.C.P. copy of the import licence No. 8531841 is hereby cancelled.
